

FOOD & SNACKS

If your party takes place over the lunch hour (11 a.m. – 1 p.m.) or dinner hour (5 p.m. – 7 p.m.), it's a good idea to serve heavier food that can serve as a meal. Keep food easy to hold and kid-friendly—things like hot dogs, chicken nuggets, pizza or sandwiches are ideal party foods.

If your party takes place in between mealtimes (before 11 a.m. or from 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.), serving light snacks, drinks and cake is perfectly acceptable.

Consider serving water in addition to juices and milk for the kids.

FUN FOOD IDEAS FOR YOUR DISNEY PRINCESS PARTY!

Magical Ice Punch

Freeze pink-colored cubes (combination of fruit punch mix and cranberry juice) the night before. During the party, prepare cups of juice with seltzer water. Let each princess/prince add in "magic" ice cube.

Starry Night Wands

Make fairy wand snacks by cutting fruit or rice cereal treats into star shapes with a cookie cutter. Insert a pretzel rod into each for the wand handle. Decorate with icing and glittery sprinkles if applicable.

"I Heart You" Sandwiches

A treat kids and parents will be sure to love! Make heart-shaped peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and add a touch of elegance with chocolate dipped strawberries.

Crowned Chicken Pie

A royal twist on the classic chicken pot pie. Create crowned pastry cups and fill with delicious chicken filling.

Cake/Cupcakes

Decorate your cake/cupcakes with Disney Princess-themed icons (i.e. tiaras, gems, glass slipper, pumpkins, etc.)

Castle Cake

The ultimate delectable princess birthday treat. Decorate with castle shapes and princess pink frosting.
