

MICKEY MOUSE CLUBHOUSE

FOOD & SNACKS

If your party takes place over the lunch hour (11 a.m. – 1 p.m.) or dinner hour (5 p.m. – 7 p.m.), it's a good idea to serve heavier food that can serve as a meal. Keep food easy to hold and kid-friendly – things like hot dogs, chicken nuggets, pizza or sandwiches are ideal party foods.

If your party takes place in between mealtimes (before 11 a.m. or from 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.), serving light snacks, drinks and cake is perfectly acceptable.

Consider serving water in addition to juices or milk for the kids.

HERE ARE SOME FUN FOOD IDEAS FOR YOUR MICKEY MOUSE CLUBHOUSE PARTY:

Hot Diggity Dogs – Pigs in a Blanket are just the right size for any young child. Serve with mustard/ketchup on the side.

Clubhouse Sandwiches – a variety of simple luncheon meats (chicken, turkey, ham) with cheese, mustard and/or ketchup on whole wheat bread.

Mousketool Macaroni – Elbow macaroni with tomato sauce and/or oil and garlic can be served as a small side dish.

Toodles Treats – A variety of red velvet cookies and golden sandwich cookies. Cookies and cupcakes can be placed on serving platter or plates in sets of 3 to form the iconic “Mickey ears.”

Pluto's Veggie Skateboards

Kids will enjoy this nutritious veggie side dish next to their Hot Diggity Dogs. Zucchini for wheels and sliced carrots for the board make this side a fun experience!

Clubhouse Cake

The exciting birthday cake frosted in blue, yellow and red frosting with Mickey ears decorations. De-lic-ious!!!
